Meher Castelino- Renowned Fashion Journalist

Advisory Board Member, SOFT

Born in Bombay Meher Castelino's involvement with fashion and beauty goes back to 1964 when she won the Miss India crown, soon after graduating from Lawrence School, Lovedale. She was the first Miss India selected by Femina to represent the country at the Miss Universe and Miss United Nations Contests in Miami Beach, Florida and Majorca Spain. A famous commercial and catwalk model, she has appeared in over 2000 live fashion shows, many of which were conceived and directed by her.

Since her first article in Eve's Weekly in 1973 she has been a full time fashion journalist and syndicated columnist. Her articles have frequently appeared in nearly 130 national and international newspapers and magazines. She is the pioneer of Fashion Journalism in India.

Hemang Agrawal - Renowned Fashion Designer

Strategic Advisor, SOFT

Hemang Agrawal studied Fashion Design at NIFT, Mumbai & business management at Sydenham College, Mumbai. He finished amongst the top of the class at both institutions (1997-2001) and was awarded for Textile Development at NIFT and received Merit and Golden Jubilee Scholarship at Sydenham College.

He has been working extensively in the field since, specializing in textiles made out of precious metals & natural fibres, through reviving several age-old techniques, which are almost extinct in modern-day handloom weaving. He has been developing textiles for leading International & Indian design brands for the last decade. The line of Garment has been presented at IMGR Lakme Fashion week India & available at stores in South-East Asia, middle-east, Japan, Europe besides India. His work has been presented and awarded at several platforms including the International Consortium of Green Fashion, NID, IMGR/ LFW, Ministry of Textiles, Govt. of India etc.
